Hamstead Hall Academy Trust

Introduction

Hamstead Hall Academy Trust was formed in 2013 and currently consists of two academies: Hamstead Hall Academy, an 11-18 secondary and Grestone Academy, a three-form primary academy with a nursery. The strategic aim of the Trust is to improve the educational outcomes of all the children and young people it is directly responsible for. This will be achieved through the recruitment and retention of a high quality and committed workforce. We intend to deliver outstanding professional learning and enhanced career opportunities for staff in our academies.

The improvement priorities have been designed to have a significant impact on the quality of teaching and learning, removing barriers to achievement and enhancing educational outcomes. The Trust has a rigorous Quality Assurance Programme with external validation to ensure its processes and outcomes are of a consistently high quality.

The Trust is a strategic partner in the Arthur Terry School Teaching Alliance, as well as being a member of the Titan Partnership and the Birmingham Education Partnership (BEP) with a place on the BEP Strategic Leadership and Improvement Committee (SLIC). These partnerships are an active part of the Trust's academy improvement strategy.

All Academies within The Hamstead Hall Multi Academy Trust are governed by one Trust (the Members) and a board of Directors. Directors of the Hamstead Hall Academy Trust are appointed by the Members and include the Executive Principals. The Hamstead Hall Academy Trust holds ultimate responsibility for all decisions regarding the running of the individual Academies. However, whilst finance, HR, estates, ICT, admissions and marketing are managed centrally, the Hamstead Hall Academy Trust delegates decisions relating to the curriculum and learning and teaching to the local governing bodies of the individual Academies. This ensures that academies within the Trust can retain their individuality. Opportunities are given to share best practice and to participate in shared opportunities for professional development.

Aims and Values

Our mission statement

Hamstead Hall Academy Trust aims to place learning at the heart of its community; creating an education sector that values all people (irrespective of age, race, ability and sexual orientation) in our community as learners and will support them to secure a better future for themselves and for our local area.

Our Vision

At Hamstead Hall Academy Trust, our vision is to create a learning community across our academies where we work together to support our learners of all ages to secure a better future for themselves through the pursuit of excellence in everything we do. We aim to provide:

- The widest possible range of opportunities for students, teachers, para-professionals and the community to feel fulfilled in their lifelong learning.
- A challenging edge for us all to achieve our individual best in all aspects of academy life.
- A real sense of belonging to a supportive learning community where we prepare students for success in the 21st century workplace.
- The best facilities possible to support our work.
- The feeling of a community: caring, supportive, improving and challenging with us all taking our share of responsibility to make this a reality'.

The Hamstead Hall Academy Trust seeks to be the place, which is the first choice for children to learn and staff to work. We will enhance children's life chances by maximising their educational outcomes through a broad and balanced, challenging curriculum, which develops best practice in teaching and learning, informed by research and the experiences of our staff across the Trust. Teaching staff in our academies are supported with opportunities for collaborative planning and development. The Trust will ensure that there is focussed and personalised professional learning informed by robust and rigorous quality assurance across the academies to further improve teaching and learning and increase leadership capacity. The Trust's cross phase work will support us to become a centre of excellence in transition.

Our Values

- We treat people with respect be they learners, teachers, para-professionals in any context.
- We value the fact that we all learn at different rates, and we aim to support people along their individual learning pathway.
- We need to have the highest expectations of ourselves and of others. We should strive to do our best in all aspects of life.

How do we quality assure our work?

The Hamstead Hall Academy Trust is ultimately accountable for the performance of each of its academies. It can agree to delegate as much or as little power down to the local governing bodies of the academies involved as is appropriate. This could vary according to the circumstances and context of each individual academy. The Hamstead Hall Academy Trust will provide effective support for any of its academies requiring additional support, including access to a variety of school improvement partnerships through its links with National College for Teaching and Leadership, Birmingham Education Partnership (BEP), Titan Partnership and the Teaching School alliances with which it works.

Self-evaluation

Our aim is to support all of our academies to be judged by Ofsted as at least good with the capacity to become outstanding. Once a year, each of our academies will be subject to a rigorous review of its work that will be initiated by the Hamstead Hall Academy Trust Board of Directors, involving the Leadership Teams of the academies with verification from external consultants. Formal reviews of each academy's progress towards agreed targets are presented to the respective Local Governing Body of each academy on a regular (termly) basis and received by the Hamstead Hall Academy Trust Board three times per year. At a local level, governors from each of the academies within the Hamstead Hall Academy Trust will play an active role in monitoring the quality of learning and teaching and outcomes for learners. Through regular training across the academies within the Hamstead Hall Academy Trust, governors will be supported to question and challenge information presented to them; gaining the level of awareness and understanding that will enable them to accurately judge their academy's capacity for further improvement. Our monitoring processes will continuously inform self-evaluation and planning within each of our academies.

These will include:

- tracking of learner progress and planned interventions to support each learner's success
- analysis of attendance and punctuality (with a consistent strategy agreed across all of our academies to reduce persistent absence)
- analysis of data relating to learners' attendance, behaviour and safety
- scrutiny of learners' work
- analysis of standards of learning and teaching (including moderated lesson observations to ensure consistent judgements about standards across all of our academies).
- learning walks involving senior and middle leaders and governors
- evidence that professional development programmes are directly linked to the outcomes of lesson observations and appraisal objectives
- detailed analysis of outcomes for learners

consultation with students, staff and parents across our academies and partners across our wider community (this will be done through formally constituted groups, focus groups and surveys throughout the year).

Benefits of our Multi-Academy Trust

Individual Academies within the Hamstead Hall Academy Trust retain their autonomy within the Governance Structure allowing for individuality in relation to the academy's context and environment. As a MAT we aim for our academies to benefit through improving value for money and school improvement services. Academies within the MAT can benefit from the flexibility that the Hamstead Hall Academy Trust offers to manage the funding available. Funding to the Academies within the Hamstead Hall Academy Trust is allocated on an individual Academy basis, via a supplemental agreement between the Secretary of State and each Academy within the Trust. The Hamstead Hall Academy Trust can, to the extent that it is permitted through the Funding Agreement, combine some of the individual Academy's budgets and use the money to fund shared services. This helps the Hamstead Hall Academy Trust to achieve economies of scale. The Hamstead Hall Academy Trust can often negotiate contracts and services that achieve much better value for money than if each academy were to negotiate these individually; and source locally wherever possible. The Hamstead Hall Academy Trust is the employer for all staff within its Academies, allowing the movement of staff across schools if this is desired. This is an attractive option that offers greater security of employment for staff in our academies with fluctuating populations and affords the capacity to provide additional support where it is required.

The Trust can provide a wide range of professional learning opportunities for all staff and has developed a leadership pathway from NQT to Middle Leadership to Senior Leadership. Staff within the Trust have been actively engaged with designing and delivering external leadership programmes such as, NPQH, NPQML, Leading change.

Opportunities for collaboration

The Hamstead Hall Academy Trust is ultimately accountable and responsible for the performance of each of its Academies. Through the Scheme of Delegation, responsibilities are delegated to the local governing bodies of the academies within the Trust. The Trust appoints an Executive Principal to deliver the strategy of the Trust and to work with the individual Heads of the school to provide effective support as required, including access to a variety of school improvement partnerships through its links with the National College for Teaching and Leadership, Birmingham Education Partnership, Titan Partnership and the Teaching School alliances.

Thinking about the future: our strategic intent and improvement offer

Our strategic intent is to improve provision and outcomes in the academies in our MAT with a focus on:

HHAT Improvement team

Our MAT has a developing central services team which can ensure that there are shared services across the MAT to support our academies in these key areas.

Hamstead Hall Academy is a National Support School and through our partnerships with the National College for Teaching and Leadership, Birmingham Education Partnership (BEP), Titan Partnership and the Teaching School alliances there is a proven track record of school to school improvement.
